

I am now getting mostly all pre-recorded telemarketing calls.
They are to my residence. They are usually between 7pm to 9pm.
The problem is that the information about my life is too readily available. The laws should be changed to address the problem of information sharing.